Grand Hotel Hvar hosts the 20th Frank Rose Festival

Festival Dates: 8–15 July 2022

The festival’s programme includes classical music, opera, jazz, pop, rock, theatre, dance, circus, poetry, and film screenings. The main venue is the historic Grand Hotel Hvar, which has been the setting for the festival since its inception in 1973. The festival’s hallways and rooms are transformed into venues for different types of performances, creating an intimate and engaging atmosphere.

This year, the festival has a special focus on contemporary music, with a series of concerts featuring international artists. The programme also includes a variety of cultural events, such as exhibitions and workshops, which provide a platform for creative expression and dialogue.

The festival attracts a diverse audience from around the world, who come to enjoy the high-quality performances and participate in the cultural events. The festival is organized by the Grand Hotel Hvar and supported by the Hvar County Cultural Centre.

Frank Rose Festival is named after the hotel’s founder, Dr. Frank Rose, who was a renowned artist and cultural figure. The festival has become an important event on the cultural calendar of Croatia and attracts visitors from all over the world.
